

We have no reasonable basis for worrying.

No matter what happens, the community of Christ can keep on confidently trusting God, based on the security of His presence.

1. We take comfort in God when things look bleak or threatening. (v.1-6)

Conclusion: Ephesians 1:14

Into what tower do we run?

Proverbs 18:10-11. In what ways are we hoping for money to solve our problem, instead of God?

Compare to Matthew 11:28-30

Isaiah 28:16. What does it mean that God the stone God set is a tested one? (Think of the cross.) How often will we be let down?

Psalm 93:4. How mighty is God compared to hurricanes? What will happen to us at the end of time? See Luke 21:25-27, and verse 34.
